

Central New York Family History Conference

- Preserving Family Records in Digital Format
- Tracing Your Native American Ancestry
- Internet Genealogical Resources: Hottest & Freshest
- African-American Ancestors in Historical Context
- African-American Family History Research
- Municipal Historians: Genealogical Treasure Troves
- Post-Revolutionary Settlement of Upstate New York
- History & Culture of Scotland: Your Ancestor's Place
- Discovering LDS Family History Centers
- Onondaga County Library Genealogical Collections
- Deciphering Records in German
- How to Prepare for a European Research Trip
- Onondaga Historical Association Collections
- French Huguenot Family History Research
- How to Develop Your Own Genealogical Web Site
- Introduction to Family History: Beginning the Search

Sponsored by
Onondaga County Clerk
&
New York State Archives

Saturday April 26, 2008
8:30 a.m. to 3:00 p.m.

Conference Location

The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints
4889 Bear Road (Between Buckley & Taft Roads)
Liverpool, New York 13088 (315) 451-5804

Latest Information & Registration

Kent Stuetz	kstuetz@mail.nysed.gov
Denise Russo	drusso@mail.nysed.gov
Phone	(315) 793-2780

<http://www.austrianfamilyhistory.org/cnyfhc.htm>

CNY Family History Conference

FREE

Lunch is not provided